

TALKS ON TUESDAYS

May/June 2023

A Neuro-Developmental Approach to Creating a Strong Foundation for Social-Emotional Learning in Infants and Toddlers | Disrupted Attunement

246 registered for the live webinars

246 completed surveys between both webinars viewed via archived recordings satisfied or highly satisfied

Role vs Percentage Responded to Survey

AGREE OR STRONGLY AGREE

The information was practical and useful to me in my work.	98%
I learned about resources that I will now use in my work with families.	95%
This type of professional development worked well for me.	98%
I feel more confident about my knowledge of the topic.	98%
I learned more about practical strategies that I can use.	96%
As a result of this webinar, my knowledge/skills have increased.	96%
The training will have a positive impact on my professional work.	98%

HOW will you use the information you learned?

Participants overall mentioned they will:

- Support families
- Improve support for children
- Share with coworkers and other professionals

I think it will make me more aware of factors that might impair attunement and help me to coach parents to better interpret their baby's signals.

I will use this information to help educate parents, during evaluations and therapy visits, on the importance of establishing good attunement with your child and conversational turn-taking and how this, more than just exposure to language alone, significantly impacts the development of language.

